

What is claimed is:

1. Environmental protection paper slippers comprising a sole, and a vamp that bestrides the instep, and which is characterized in that:
the sole and the vamp are fabricated from corrugated paper and kraft,
5 and two ends of the vamp are bonded to a bottom surface of the sole.
2. The environmental protection paper slippers according to claim 1, wherein the two ends of the vamp are bonded to a top surface of the sole.
3. The environmental protection paper slippers according to claim 1, 10 wherein an anti-cut structure is defined on a front edge of the vamp,
whereby the anti-cut structure assumes a wave form configuration.
4. The environmental protection paper slippers according to claim 1, wherein an anti-cut structure is defined on a rear edge of the vamp,
whereby the anti-cut structure assumes a wave form configuration.
- 15 5. The environmental protection paper slippers according to claim 1, wherein frictional wales are defined on the top surface of the sole.
6. The environmental protection paper slippers according to claim 1, wherein frictional wales are defined on the bottom surface of the sole.